

DECLARATION OF HEALTH

This Contract of Insurance will be effected through Certain Underwriting Members of Lloyds of London ("the Underwriters"), whose Syndicate numbers and proportion of liability will be shown within the policy.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

HOW TO FILL OUT THIS FORM

Please fill out every question neatly and clearly. This will assist the Underwriters in evaluating your declaration and if they are unable to read the information you have given us, we will not be able to consider covering any pre-existing conditions.

Your duty to take reasonable care not to misrepresent

Before you enter into an insurance contract with us, the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 requires you to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation.

What this means is that you must take care to ensure the accuracy of any information you provide to us, as our decision whether to enter into a contract with you, and if so on what terms, will be based on the information you provide.

Your duty includes:

- Giving honest, accurate and complete answers to any questions we ask;
- Making reasonable enquiries to determine the accuracy of any information you give to us; and
- Taking care to ensure that any representation you make to us is accurate.

Every person who is insured under the policy must comply with this duty at the commencement of the policy and when you renew, vary, extend, reinstate or replace the policy. If you or any person who is insured under the policy do not comply with this duty and fail to take care to ensure the accuracy of any representation made to us, we may cancel the policy, reduce the amount we pay if you make a Claim, or decline a Claim. If you breach this duty fraudulently, we may avoid the policy altogether and treat it as if it never existed.

Privacy

Lloyd's and its agents are bound by the obligations of the Privacy Act 1988 as amended by the Privacy Amendment (Enhancing Privacy Protection) Act 2012 (the Act). This sets out basic standards relating to the collection, use, disclosure and handling of personal information. Our Privacy Policy, available by calling your broker, sets out how:

- we protect your personal information;
- you may access your personal information;
- you may correct your personal information held by us;
- you may complain about a breach of the Privacy Principles or Registered Privacy Code and how we will deal with such a complaint.

We, and our agents, need to collect, use and disclose your personal information in order to consider your application for insurance and to provide the cover you have chosen, administer the insurance and assess any claim. You can choose not to provide us with some of the details or all of your personal information, but this may affect our ability to provide the cover, administer the insurance or assess a claim.

We may disclose your personal information to third parties who assist us in providing the above services. These parties (which include our related entities, distributors, agents, insurers (including reinsurers) and service providers) will only use the personal information for the purposes we provided it to them for (unless otherwise required by law). It is likely that the information will be disclosed overseas to the United Kingdom.

Information will be obtained from individuals directly where possible and practicable to do so. Sometimes it may be collected indirectly (e.g. from your representatives or co-insureds). If you provide information for another person you represent to us that:

- you have the authority from them to do so and it is as if they provided it to us;
- you have made them aware that you will or may provide their personal information to us, the types of third parties we may provide it to, the relevant purposes we and the third parties we disclose it to will use it for, and how they can access it. If it is sensitive information we rely on you to have obtained their consent on these matters. If you have not done or will not do either of these things, you must tell us before you provide the relevant information.

You are entitled to access your information if you wish and request correction if required. You may also opt out of receiving materials sent by us by contacting your broker.
